THE LIVER QUARANTINE SPRINKLE STATE STREET

Make a Dustless Drive From Depot to City

As the beautiful spring weather is approaching and the streets are becoming dry and dusty, some steps should be taken either by the city government or private parties to have State street sprinkled at least to Twelfth, and from there to the passenger depot. This is e digestive organs give way, and the street that all strangers travel when puntless ills assail the man who they same into Salem, and they should they come into Salem, and they should not be treated to a dust bath the minute they arrive here. Many other streets ought to be sprinkled and kept free from grass which are not, but this is especially true of the thoroughfare Marion Park Home. - Salem, Oregon. mentioned.

If the city council cannot assume this work and expense some steps should be taken by private individuals to that end. Many enterprising citizens will be glad to contribute for so meritorious an undertaking. If it becomes necessary to do this, the Journal publishers will cheerfully contribute their share and it is to be hoped that some-
